From the Commander

As we say goodbye to 2010 and welcome to 2011, it is also time to pass the gavel to a new slate of Georgia Jaycees Rebel Corps officers. Your incoming board has already hit the ground running. They met in mid-December and set plans for the new year.

Congratulations to Commander-elect Pat Rogers and her elected and appointed officers and staff.

ALL SCHOOL REUNION

Mark your calendar. It looks like they are going to really do it right this time! A group of old Jaycees are planning an all school reunion for June 24-25-26, 2011, on Jekyll Island. Cost is $25 per person. Housing for the weekend is the Quality Inn at Jekyll.

Meetings? Yes, the kind we all like. No meetings! But they are planning a meal function with a DJ for Saturday night. There will also be a hospitality room at the Quality Inn. If any of the auxiliaries want to meet, the planners are offering us space. As they see how many people are coming, they will announce more details about what they plan to do. Profit? Well, any money over expenses will be donated to Camp Dream. The group MUST have some idea of the number of people coming. Please contact Frankie Sanders at (478) 396-0268, fandf313@windstream.net or Deryl Rowland at (770) 633-7306, deryl@dlrowland.com.

WEB SITE

For a brief time in mid-December, the Rebel Corps web site was down. Rumors were flying that the bills had not been paid and that your webmaster and/or your Commander had pulled the website down.

Well, I am here to tell you that it was the ISP's fault. Specifically, the name-server was not recognizing our web name and the forwarding needed to get you to the location where our web is stored. If the website is down, it could be caused by a variety of problems such as the web name reservation has expired, the web space has not been paid for, the web server is down, the name server is down, or the entire web has been taken over by hackers or the Russians or little green men, and so forth. As the webmaster for the Senate, I don't look at the website every day; but I am on it probably once a week. So, if you don't get through, try again a little later. If you still don't get through, let your Commander and/or webmaster know. Both of them will be most appreciative that you are watching the web!

CORPS RAFFLE

The Corps major fundraiser – the yearly raffle – is currently underway. You probably have already received tickets from Vice Commander Dave Brooker. As you know, it takes more money than just dues to run our organization.

If you have already responded, thanks! If you have not responded, please return your tickets and check to Dave ASAP. The winner will receive $500 (or half of the net if less than $1000 is netted). The winning ticket will be pulled at the cocktail party on Saturday evening in Atlanta.

WEB MAIL

The Corps is now utilizing Yahoo Groups for much of its email communications. It is fast and simple to use. And best of all, you, the users, control the process.

PIGEON FORGE/CORPS OF CORPS COMING SOON

Put it on your calendar! The 30th anniversary Mini-National Conference in Pigeon Forge, Tennessee is the last weekend in February. It will be held February 24-27. The hotel is the same as last year – the Mainstay Suites.

The meeting is always a good one, but the 30th anniversary meeting may prove to be the best ever! We had a group of almost 20 Colonels last year! Hope to see you there!

IT'S JUST ABOUT THAT TIME

As I complete my last newsletter article, looking back over the year I see what I think has been a good year for the Corps. We completed the incorporation process for both the Corps and the Foundation. We had successful meetings at Jekyll and in Warner Robins and the Atlanta meeting is just around the corner. We took in one new Colonel.

We had two profitable raffles, a great golf tournament, and a successful booth at Cherry Blossom. If you chaired any of these projects – Thank You!

We were represented in Pigeon Forge, in Concord, California and at the Region IV meeting in Atlanta.

My Jaycee training taught me that a good leader surrounds himself/herself with strong elected officers, good advisors, and the best appointed staff that money can buy! And I think that I did just that! I had the best officers, advisors, and staff! Thanks to each of you. And to each and every Colonel, thanks for giving me the chance to serve as your 2010 Commander!

I wish for each and every one of you, the very best in 2011.

From Your In Active Vice-Commander

Update

Tony McCool
Inactive Vice-Commander

Another year has passed us by. I hope you have accomplished what you wanted in 2010. The new year is bright and I hope you have set your goals. You know, there is something magical about a “written” goal. I encourage you to write out your goals for 2011 without delay (work, family, and the Corps). A written goal is a thought, cast in stone and read by your eyes back to yourself. That reinforcement makes a difference.

Thank you for allowing me to be your Inactive Vice-Commander in 2010. We were at growth and may have a few more to put in at the January Board Meeting. Continue to recruit to your local Jaycee Chapter and the Corps. They both need your support in the coming years.

Central Region Screening meeting will be held the 15th in Columbus at the Region Meeting. Location is either Momma Goldberg's on Broadway or another downtown location. We have one candidate from the Central Region and possibly more to put up for consideration. Hope you can make it.

See you in Norcross.

Parliamentarian

Colonels:

Whoever reads the bylaws - let alone writes them or understands them? While bylaws may not be on the best-seller list, They are critically important to the smooth functioning of any organized society. What does it take to ensure a great set of bylaws? Parliamentary procedure, often used interchangeably with "parliamentary law," is more correctly defined as parliamentary law in Combination with the rules of order that a given assembly or organization has adopted. Parliamentary law is:

- rules of the game of democracy.
- Rules that govern procedures by which civil and criminal laws are made and adopted.
- Rules and customs that govern deliberative and decision-making assemblies and organization.
- the deliberative assembly may exist in many forms. Among the principal types are:
 - mass meeting
 - Local assembly of an organized society

- Convention
 - Legislative body
 - Board
- Fundamentally, under the rules of parliamentary law, a deliberative body is a free agent—free to do what it wants to do with the greatest measure of protection to itself and of consideration for the rights of its members. This year is coming to an end and I would like to wish everyone a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year! Looking forward to seeing everyone in Atlanta on January 28th, 2011 for the Board Meeting.

Pat Rogers, Colonel #2293
Parliamentarian

Adjutant

Working on the News Letter this year has been Fun and Challenging. I have been working on several Charities at home also so this past Holiday season has been a blur.

We as Colonels have been given a unique opportunity this past year by helping revive our State Headquarters building and put it to good use by helping to start a new chapter in the Houston County area. I hope to see more on this project this coming year.

I believe We have given you Colonels an informative newsletter with a pleasing look. I would like to thank everyone for allowing me to do this and I look forward to serving you as the 2011 In-Active Vive Commander.

I hope to see each of you in Norcross this month.

Tommy Cobb #2372
Adjutant 2010

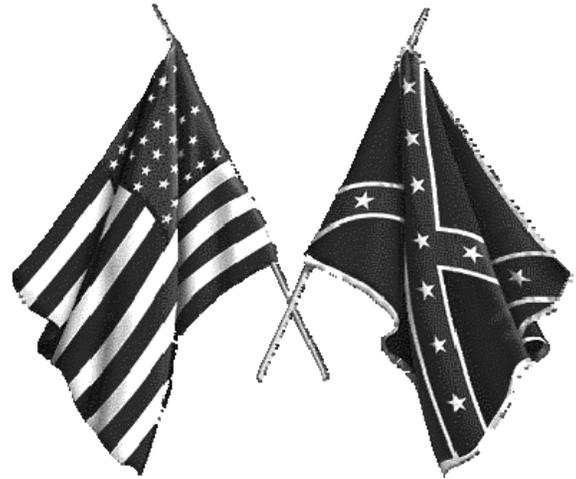

Chief of Staff

What a year! Thanks for the opportunity to serve as your Chief of Staff. If you have something that you would like to have on the agenda for the Business Meeting in January, please contact me by 1/15/11. Since this is our year end meeting, we need to be sure to kept things moving smoothly. I look forward to seeing you all in Norcross.

From the Chaplain

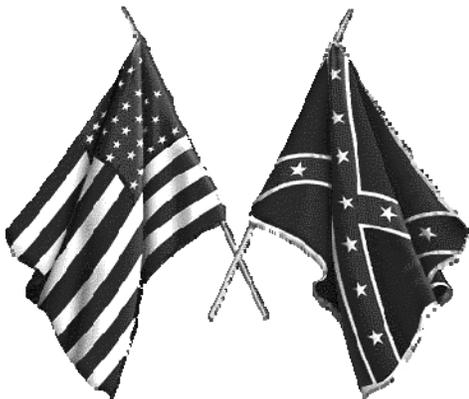

Fellow Colonels

I have had a lot of request for prayers as well as well wishes. I hope everyone has been receiving the emails concerning all prayer requests via Jaycee mail group. As always please remember we are not just Jaycees we are family and it is our prayers and thoughts that can help each other through the rough times. Please continue to let me know of any request that need to go out. I can be reached by one of the following ways. ldlepick@aol.com or 678-588-7448.
